

WEEK TWO - JUNE 2018 - SECOND/THIRD

Bible Story: He'll Be There for You • Judges 6-8

Bottom Line: God can use you no matter what

Memory Verse: "I remain confident of this: I will see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living." - Psalm 27:13 NIV

Life App: Confidence - Living like you believe what God says is true.

Basic Truth: I can trust God no matter what.

Summary: We look to Judges 6-8. When God called Gideon to lead the Israelites, Gideon doubted God would really want him to help. Gideon was from the smallest tribe, the smallest family, and he was the smallest of his family! God wanted him anyway and eventually Gideon learned that God could use him no matter what!

8:50-9:00 | 10:20-10:30 | 11:50-12:00 - EARLY ARRIVERS ACTIVITIES

1. Early Arriver Idea

Connect: an activity that invites kids to share with others and build on their understanding

What You Need: N/A

What You Do:

- Welcome the kids to your group and use a couple minutes to ask about their week (highs/lows)
- Then encourage them to share if they have a nickname.
 - Why did you get that nickname?
 - Who gave it to you?
- [Make It Personal] Tell kids what nickname you had when you were young, why you got it, and who gave it to you.
- Let kids come up with some fun and silly nicknames for each other.
- Allow them to be random and make no sense, but help kids understand if they come up with a nickname that might not be super fun for the person receiving it.

2. How Confident are You?

Play: an activity that encourages learning through following guidelines & working as a group

What You Need: Small ball; paper; pencil

What You Do:

- Gather the group to sit in a circle.
- Select a kid to be the scorekeeper.
 - Instruct the scorekeeper to write down the name of every child in the group on paper provided.
 - Pull the scorekeeper aside (so the rest of the group can't hear) and inform her of the points system (see below). The point system should be kept secret so it doesn't affect how the rest of the group answers.
- Select a kid to be "It," turn his back away from the group, and cover his ears.
- Silently give the beanbag or other small item to a kid inside the circle and instruct him to hide it behind his back.
- Instruct the rest of the kids in the circle to place their hands behind their backs as well.
- Tell It to return and stand in the center of the circle.
- Explain that someone has the beanbag hidden in his hand.

- Give It about 15 seconds to look around at the rest of the group and try to determine who might have the beanbag.
- When the 15 seconds are up, ask It to name who she believes is hiding the beanbag.
- Then ask, "How confident are you?" The possible answers are: very confident, confident, or not confident.
- If a kid answers correctly, let the scorekeeper award the following points:
 - 3 points if their answer was "Very Confident"
 - 2 point if their answer was "Confident"
 - 1 point if their answer was "Not confident"
- Continue play, allowing different kids to be It and tally points as time and interest allow.
- When time is up, total points and declare the winner by saying, "[Kid's name] is the MOST confident player!"

What You Say:

"That was fun! Sometimes you were confident and gave the WRONG answer. Sometimes you weren't so confident and gave the right one! [Transition] Today we'll hear about someone who was chosen for a VERY big job and he wasn't confident at all. Let's go find out what happened."

Lead your group to the Large Group area.

9:10-9:45 | 10:40-11:15 | 12:10-12:45 - LARGE GROUP

OVERVIEW:

Bottom Line: God can use you no matter what." Big or small, young or old, God can use people to do amazing things. We pray that whether kids feel like Gideon or have the confidence of an extreme sports superstar, kids will realize that God can use them.

9:45-10:05 | 11:15-11:35 | 12:45-1:05 SMALL GROUP

1. The Illustrated Story of Gideon

[Application Activity]

Create: an activity that explores spiritual ideas through the process of drawing & designing

What You Need: White board; dry erase markers; paper; pencils

What You Do:

- Hand out a piece of a paper and a pencil to each kid in the group
- Gather the kids around the white board to review the story as you draw the suggested pictures listed below.
- Encourage the children to draw the pictures on their own papers, filling the page any way they choose.
- Make sure they know they do NOT need to erase between each picture but simply add to the page each time.
- Story Review:
 - Draw several X's down the side of the page. Circle the bottom X. An angel appeared one day to Gideon to tell him that he would save his people from their enemy, the Midianites. Gideon said, "But I'm from the weakest family, and I'm the weakest among them." The Lord said, "I will go with you."
 - Erase the X's and write "32,000" in large print. Gideon called on men to join him and an army of 32,000 men assembled. But that was too many. Draw an X through 32,000.
 - Write "10,000" underneath the "32,000." God told Gideon to dismiss anyone who was fearful. So 22,000 walked away, leaving only 10,000 to fight. But that was still too many." Draw an "X" through 10,000.
 - Draw "300" underneath the other numbers. God told them to head to the water for a drink and to separate those who lapped up the water like dogs from those who cupped the water to their mouths. That left 300 men to fight.
 - Draw "100," "100," "100" at the bottom of the board. That night, Gideon broke up the army into 3 groups of 100 to fan out around the Midianite camp.
 - Erase the "100s" and draw a sword. Were Gideon's men armed with swords or weapons?
 - Draw an X over the sword and draw a trumpet and a jar. Nope! At Gideon's signal, they blasted their trumpets and broke their jars to light the torches inside. The enemy camp was so confused, some ran away and some even fought each other. The Lord brought victory to the Israelites that day!

What You Say:

"Gideon NEVER expected that God would choose him. You might say that he was the least confident person ever—certainly not one to think he could lead an entire army to fight the big, bad Midianites. But God can do anything and He can use anybody. Even if you think you aren't strong enough or smart enough or whatever enough, God can still use you if you're willing. You can have confidence in knowing that [Bottom Line] God can use you no matter what.

[Make it Personal] (Tell the kids about a time when you felt REALLY unprepared or inadequate to accomplish something or to do the right thing in a tough situation. How did God use you and prove that He was with you? Maybe you stood up to a bully as a kid or refused to cut corners and cheat in order to win.)

"I'm so thankful that God doesn't look at what I think I can or can't do. God just wants me to be willing and then when I listen and obey, I know it isn't me doing something in my own strength, it's God. He gets all the credit. So remember, [Bottom Line] God can use you no matter what."

2. Not So Confident Charades

[Application Activity]

Imagine: an activity that promotes empathy and facilitates application through role play

What You Need: "Not So Confident Charade Suggestions" Activity Page

What You Do:

- Explain that in the pile of cards are examples of situations that might make kids feel "not so confident."
- Select the kid with the closest birthday to draw from the pile first.
- The first kid will act out the scenario for the group to see if they can figure out what the situation is.
- Be prepared to give suggestions if the kids need help figuring out what their actions should be. They can also come up with a couple "lines" to say as they act out the situations.
- Once the group correctly guesses the scenario, select another child to choose a scenario and act it out for the group.
- Continue until all the suggestions have been selected.
- If time allows, let the kids come up with their own suggestions and act them out for the group

What You Say:

"It's easy to feel confident about things that you're good at or the things you've done before. But new things, scary things, things that seem impossible . . . well, we're not always so confident about those. The truth is, for all of your life—even when you're an adult like me—you will face situations that test your confidence. That's when you need to remember something BIG. The key to having confidence is remembering that it doesn't come from you and what you can do. Real confidence comes from God and your faith and trust in Him.

*Remember [Bottom Line] God can use you no matter what. But you have to be willing to let him guide you, and you have to trust that He will help you.

3. Pray & Dismiss

[Prayer Activity]

Reflect: an activity that creates space for personal understanding and application

What You Need: N/A

What You Do:

- Encourage the kids to gather up in a tight huddle, shoulder to shoulder.
- ASK:
 - Is there something that you need God to help you with?
 - Do you ever feel like Gideon and wonder how God could use you?
- Explain that you will give them a few moments to pray silently about that on their own, and then close the group in prayer

What You Say:

"Heavenly Father, sometimes it is hard to do the right thing or the hard thing when we aren't confident. But we trust You. Help us to remember that just like You were with Gideon, You are with us too. Help us to have confidence and remember that You can use us no matter what. In Jesus' name we pray, amen."

As adults arrive to pick up, encourage the kids to use their papers from the "Illustrated Story of Gideon" to retell the story of Gideon to their parents.
