

MACP – OCTOBER 2019 – SECOND/THIRD

Summary: Every week, we know that Sunday in Elementary is a MEGA PARTY! However, this particular Sunday, we are throwing a MEGA AWESOME COSTUME PARTY! I hope that you are dressed in your favorite, not-so-scary costume & get ready to party with your small group of preteens. Throughout today, we will have games/prizes and chances to walk away with some MEGA AWESOME awards. So, SGL's get ready because this party is about to be a MEGA AWESOME BLAST!

PRE-SERVICE ACTIVITY

1. Pre-Party Prep

What You Need: “Pumpkin” Coloring Pages; markers/crayons

What You Do:

- Welcome kids and spend time engaging in conversation and asking about their past week
 - If you have any first-timers, take time to make them feel welcomed
- Explain that today is a party and that there will be chances to win candy and other big prizes for your entire group and grade
- As you explain the day, set out the coloring pages and drawing utensils
 - Tell them to decorate the pumpkin in whatever that they desire
- As they are coloring, ask these questions:
 - You all looks MEGA AWESOME! How did you decide what costume you were going to wear today?
 - What is your favorite costume you have ever worn?
 - What is the funniest costume you have seen so far today?
 - If you were _____ (preteen’s costume), what would you do?
 - What’s the best costume you have seen so far today?

What You Say:

“Who’s excited about the MEGA AWESOME COSTUME PARTY?! I know that I am. And you all are looking sharp (Look around and name some of your “special guests” // “_____, we are honored you have taken time out of your busy schedule of _____ [fighting Thanos, putting out fires, ruling Arendelle] to be with us today”). You look totally, MEGA AWESOME! Are you ready to go have some MEGA AWESOME F-U-N? [Transition] Well, then let’s head to the Family Center for LG to partake in all the fun that we are going to have today!”

Lead your group to the Large Group area.
