"Doesn't that just completely change the way you go about your day? If you're absolutely SURE that God is with you? I think so! If we believe that God is with us, then we'll have the confidence to live God's way."

"Speaking of confidence, we're going to play another classic video game right in this room. This game will require a few of our leaders to HOP with confidence. This game is called 'Frogger™.'"

SLIDE: FROGGER SCREEN SHOT OR GAMEPLAY VIDEO (OPTIONAL)

"Look at that cute little frog! The goal of the game was to get your frog safely from one side of the street to the other. But you had to dodge different vehicles along the way. For example, while your frog was trying to cross the street, suddenly a racecar would speed by! In the next lane, a giant semi-truck might come barreling through. To get your frog safely across all those lanes of traffic, you had to jump at just the right times!"

Note: The original game also had a section over water, where the frog had to jump on top of logs and turtles to make it across. Explain this as well, if you plan to have a water section.

SLIDE: THEME

OPTIONAL VIDEO (MEDIA PACKAGE): THEME LOOP

"Today, I thought we could have a couple of Small Group Leaders as the frogs, and some of you will be the cars, trucks, and other vehicles driving by."

Choose two or three Small Group Leaders to take turns as the frog. Give each of them a frog "costume" to wear and have them stand in front of the taped lanes.

Then choose a few kids to be the vehicles.

(to one of the kids) "[Kid's name], you're a minivan, right in the first lane.

Hold your hands up like you're holding a steering wheel and demonstrate how the kid should walk across his/her "lane" at a steady pace.

"You'll drive like this, at a nice, steady pace. When you get to the other side, turn around and come right back. (Demonstrate.) Just keep going back and forth like that.

(to another kid) "[Kid's name], you're a racecar over here in the next lane. You'll go super-fast, back and forth. (Demonstrate.)

(to another kid) "[Kid's name], you're a school bus in the next lane. You'll take a few steps and stop, like this. (Demonstrate.)

Continue through as many different lanes as you have taped on your floor. Other ideas:

- semi-truck (several kids with their hands on each other's shoulders)
- train (kid doing a slow-motion run while doing a "CHOO-CHOO!" every few steps)
- bicycle (kid acting like they're holding handlebars and pedaling)
- unicycle (kid acting like they're pedaling without handlebars)
- motorcycle (kid acting like they're holding handlebars, making a "VROOM" sound)
- log over water (kid with their hands at their sides, "rolling" steadily as they walk; the leader has to tag them with their hand in order to hop on top of the log, then keep traveling with the kid until they hop to the next log)
- turtle over water (kid with their arms outstretched, making a swimming motion; the leader has to tag them just like with the log)

"Okay, everybody! I think we've got all of our lanes set up. Remember, keep going at the same speed the whole time. But all of you will be going at a slightly different speed. Our leaders will try to hop through and avoid you!

If you're using a section over water, explain how the leaders need to hop on the logs and/or turtles to make it across the water.

"We'll see which leader can be the first one to hop all the way across then all the way back to the start.

"Let's play Frogger™! Audience, let's cheer them on. Ready, set, go!

AUDIO: FUN 8-BIT VIDEO GAME MUSIC

Comment on the action as the three leaders hop through the course. Encourage the kids to keep going at their set pace as whatever type of vehicle they are. When the first leader makes it back to where they started, congratulate them. Thank all leaders and kids as you dismiss them to their seats.

"Way to go! That was super-fun! Leaders, you showed some great confidence making your way safely through all those dangers. Let's all jump up on our feet and get ready to sing, dance, and worship God!"

BIBLE STORY

SLIDE: THEME BACKGROUND

Storyteller enters as Worship Leaders exit.

SETTING UP THE STORY

STORYTELLER: "Hello, friends! We've been making our way through God's Big Story, all throughout the Bible. (Hold up Bible.)"

If you're using a timeline of story images on the wall, reference it here.

"We're picking up the story today after Jesus had died on the cross, then came back to life. Jesus then appeared to many of His friends and followers, and eventually He returned to heaven to be with God.

"Before Jesus left, though, He gave a big job to His followers. He told them to spread the word about Him throughout the entire world! Jesus made a promise to His friends as well. He told them that God would send the Holy Spirit to help them.

"Last week, we talked about how God sent the Holy Spirit to the believers at the feast of Pentecost. That day, Jesus' friend Peter told the crowd about Jesus, and thousands of people put their faith in Jesus as their Savior. Through the help of God's Spirit, the early church began to grow!"

Set the bin full of potatoes and props on the table.

HE CAN WALK!

STORYTELLER: "Now as we get started with today's story, let me introduce you to two of Jesus' good friends: Peter and John.

Hold up two red potatoes with google eyes and smiling mouths to represent Peter and John.

"Peter and John had been ordinary fishermen before Jesus called them to be His disciples.

Pick up the fishing net and hold it up with the Peter and John potatoes.

"Now, they had the help of God's Holy Spirit as they led and encouraged the people who decided to follow Jesus.

Set down the fishing net. On the other side of the table, set out the upside-down cardboard box with "TEMPLE" written on it.

"One day, Peter and John went up to the temple to pray.

Prop up Peter and John against the "TEMPLE" box.

"And they saw a man who couldn't walk.

Hold up the red potato representing the man, then set it down next to Peter and John.

"This man asked them for money. Here's what Peter said to him.

Open the Bible to Acts 3:6 (NIRV) and read.

"I don't have any silver or gold. But I'll give you what I do have. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, get up and walk.

"The man jumped to his feet and was able to walk!

Hold up the potato representing the man, then flip his mouth from sad to happy.

(as the man) "Yay!

"The man then went with Peter and John into the temple courtyards."

Set the potato representing the man next to Peter and John, propped up against the "TEMPLE" box.

5,000 BELIEVERS

STORYTELLER: "There were crowds of people there at the temple.

Set the bag of mini potatoes on the table.

"They saw the man walking and praising God, and they were absolutely amazed! They knew he was the man who had sat for so many years outside the gate.

Pick up the Peter potato.

"Peter then spoke up, saying . . .

Open the Bible to Acts 3:12-13 (NIRV) and read.

"Fellow Israelites, why does this surprise you? Why do you stare at us? It's not as if we've made this man walk by our own power or godliness. The God of our fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, has done this.

"Peter explained to the people about Jesus: how He had died on the cross, but God raised Him back to life. Peter then looked at the man who had been healed and said . . .

Open the Bible to Acts 3:16 (NIRV) and read.

"This man whom you see and know was made strong because of faith in Jesus' name. Faith in Jesus has healed him completely. You can see it with your own eyes.

"When the people heard what Peter had to say, many of them began to believe in Jesus.

Put Peter down and pick up the bag of mini potatoes.

(as the "people") "WE BELIEVE!

"At this point, the new believers now numbered nearly 5,000!

Set down the bag of mini potatoes.

"The religious leaders were not at all happy about this, because they still didn't believe that Jesus was the Son of God. They were so upset that they had Peter and John thrown into prison."

Take away the "TEMPLE" box. Put the prison box on the table, over the top of the Peter and John potatoes.

CONFIDENCE FROM GOD

STORYTELLER: "The next morning, guards hauled Peter and John out and took them to stand before the elders and teachers.

Lift up the prison box and take out Peter and John. Place them in the middle of the table. Place the three big russet potatoes with "angry eyebrows" next to them.

"These leaders included the high priest, Annas, and other members of his family. They asked Peter and John . . .

Open the Bible to Acts 4:7 (NIRV) and read.

"By what power did you do this? . . . And through whose name?"

Hold up the Peter potato.

"Peter was filled with the Holy Spirit. He was confident! He declared . . .

With your other hand, open the Bible to Acts 4:8-10 (NIRV) and read.

"Rulers and elders of the people! Are you asking us to explain our actions today? Do you want to know why we were kind to a man who couldn't walk? Are you asking how he was healed? Then listen to this, you and all the people of Israel! You nailed Jesus Christ of Nazareth to the cross. But God raised him from the dead. It is through Jesus' name that this man stands healed in front of you.

Put down the Peter potato. Pick up the potato representing the healed man.

"Yes, that's right. The man who had been healed was standing right there as the religious leaders questioned Peter and John!

Set down the potato representing the healed man.

(Reference the potatoes on the table.) “The religious leaders could see how bold Peter and John were. This surprised them, because Peter and John were ordinary men with no training. But it was clear to them WHY Peter and John were so confident. It was because they had been with Jesus. The leaders ordered Peter and John to leave so they could talk things over.

Hold up the three potatoes representing the religious leaders.

“These leaders weren’t sure what to do with Peter and John. After all, they couldn’t deny that they had healed the man, because he was standing right there.

Set the religious leader potatoes back on the table.

“They called Peter and John back in and told them they weren’t allowed to talk about or teach about Jesus anymore. But again, Peter and John were confident!

Hold up the Peter and John potatoes.

“They said . . .

With your other hand, open the Bible to Acts 4:19-20 (NIRV) and read.

“Which is right from God’s point of view? Should we listen to you? Or should we listen to God? You be the judges! There’s nothing else we can do. We have to speak about the things we’ve seen and heard.”

WRAPPING UP THE STORY

STORYTELLER: “The religious leaders couldn’t figure out what to do with Peter and John. So in the end, they warned them again and let them go.

(as the Peter and John potatoes) “Yay!

Knock the prison box off the table.

“And all the people continued to praise God for healing the man who couldn’t walk.

Hold up the bag of mini potatoes.

(as the “people”) “Yay!

Set down the potatoes and move in front of the table.

“It must have been pretty tough for Peter and John to have to face the religious leaders like that. But they were confident, because they knew that God was with them.

“God is with YOU, too, no matter what you might be facing in life. When you put your faith in Jesus. You have God’s Holy Spirit to help you.

"So where did their confidence come from? Well, they knew that God was with them. God's Holy Spirit helped them remember they were not alone. They knew that, no matter what happened, God was always there!

"When we choose to follow Jesus, God promises to be with us, always. God's Spirit is always with us, always working in our lives. When we remember that, that's how we can have confidence like Peter and John had.

SLIDE: BOTTOM LINE

"God is with you no matter what.

Share a personal example of a time when you went through something difficult but you had confidence because you knew that God was with you.

"This week, if there are times when you feel sad or frustrated or disappointed, remember to talk to God about it. Remember that God's Spirit is always there with you.
