

FOR LEADERS ONLY

---

Which would mean more to you? Something made by a stranger, or something made by your child? Your child's creation would be the clear winner because knowing who made something can add value to the thing that has been made.

That is why we want our preschoolers to know that God made everything because knowing God made everything makes everything very good! And since God made SO many good things, we are going to Stack It Up this month — ALL OF IT — from day one through day seven. So, let's get ready for a whole lot of stacking!

WEEK 1

Story Focus: On days one and two, God made the light and dark and the sky above the water. We want to help preschoolers see God's goodness every time they look up high in the sky, because now they will know Who made it. It's not just the sky. It's the sky God made. And it is good!

WEEK 2

Story Focus: On days three and four, God made the land, plants, and seas, and the sun, moon, and stars. We want to help preschoolers see God's goodness every time they look out over the vastness of an ocean, try and count the stars, or bite into their favorite fruit, because now they will know Who made it. It's not just an ocean or stars or a strawberry. It's the ocean, stars, and strawberry that God made. And it is good!

WEEK 3

Story Focus: On day five, God made the sea animals and birds. We want to help preschoolers see God's goodness when they hear the bark of a sea lion, see a colorful fish, or find a bird's nest filled with eggs, because now they will know Who made it. It's not just a sea lion or a fish or a bird. It's a sea lion, fish, and bird that God made. And it is good!

WEEK 4

Story Focus: On days six and seven, God made the land animals and people, and then God rested. We want to help preschoolers see God's goodness when they see a tall giraffe or hold a new puppy and especially when they look at themselves and other people, because now they know Who made it – Who made them. It's not just a giraffe, puppy, or person. It's a giraffe, puppy, and person that God made. And it is good!
