

ANTHEM TRIBE TALKSHEET

More to the Story

SCRIPTURE:

1 Corinthians 6:12
1 Corinthians 6:19-20
John 8:10-11

MAIN POINTS:

- When it comes to God's design for sex, there's more to the story
- When you love Jesus, you should want what He wants

CHALLENGE YOUTH THIS WEEKEND:

- Ask someone how you can be praying for them this week or find multiple people and pray for a new person each day this week.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- What are some common misconceptions about God's view on sex that you've heard or come across?
- Paul reminds the Corinthians that while they have the right to do anything, not everything is beneficial. How can you apply this principle to your everyday choices, including those related to relationships and sex?
- Why do you think living with sexual integrity is important for maintaining healthy relationships and honoring God?
- How can the power of Jesus help us move forward and make positive changes, even if we've made mistakes in the past?
- The sermon suggests talking to God about the person you want to become. How can prayer be a powerful tool in seeking personal transformation, especially in areas like relationships and sexuality?
