

FOR LEADERS ONLY

Now is the time for our preschoolers to begin learning that God can help me be brave because the need to be brave—God-brave—will only grow throughout their lives.

What is God-brave? God-brave is . . .

- . . . the kind of brave that does the right thing even when others don't,
- . . . the kind of brave that stands up to seemingly impossible circumstances,
- . . . the kind of brave that trusts God during the darkest of times,
- . . . the kind of brave that looks to God to help us be strong and courageous,
- . . . the kind of brave that makes us SUPER KIDS—not because of what WE can do but because of what GOD can do.

WEEK 1

Story Focus: I can be brave because God is powerful.

Rahab is brave and helps God's people because she believes God is powerful. Rahab shows us that God can help us be brave enough to go against an entire city and do the right thing—to the point of risking our life to save the lives of our family and strangers.

WEEK 2

Story Focus: I can be brave because God is with me. A young shepherd named David is brave and faces Goliath, when no one else will, because he knows God is with him. With just a sling and a stone, David shows us that God can help us be brave enough to stand up to anything—even a cruel giant that wants to kill us while a fearful king and his army stand by and watch.

WEEK 3

Story Focus: I can be brave and trust God. Daniel is brave and continues to trust God, even when he is thrown into a lion's den. Daniel will show us that when we trust God's plans, God can help us be brave enough to stand alone and do what God says—even if it means being thrown into a lion's den.

WEEK 4

Story Focus: I can be brave and help others. Queen Esther is brave and asks the king to save her people. She could have hid behind the safety of her crown, but she risks everything to save others.

WEEK 5

Story Focus: God can help me do brave things. Miriam's faith in God helps her do many brave things throughout her life—helping protect her baby brother Moses, sharing God's message with others as His prophet, and leading God's people in singing and dancing to praise God.
